Reds Advance In So. China

Communists Report 200 Mile Drive

Shanghai, May 2—(AP)—The Communist radio said tonight one Red Army column (about 20,000 men) had reached Kimen and joined with Communist guerrillas already operating in that hilly region 200 miles southwest of Nanking.

This report seemed to confirm a Shanghai nationalist garrison announcement of April 29 that three Communist armies were driving south and southeast in that area. The armies were identified as the 14th, 15th, and 16th under Kimen, 70 miles south of the Yangtze river, is 80 miles north of the railway that leads from Shanghai through Hangchow southwest to Canton, provisional government capital.

Suspend Rail Service
The government central news agency earlier today said rail service southwest of Hangchow had been suspended. It later attributed this to exhaustion of coal supplies on that division.

Hangchow, nationalist "escape hatch" 121 miles southwest of Shanghai, already was closely threatened by the leisurely moving Reds, however.

The communists evidently were driving south toward the rail artery to Canton rather than making any serious bid for capture of Hangchow or of Shanghai.

A mid-day crash of Shanghai's chaotic financial market seemed to be of vastly more concern to Shanghai's residents than the communist approach.

Inflation Inflated
It permitted trading at the official rate of 4,000,000 "gold" yuan to one silver dollar, but the open rate had been as high as 9,000,000 to one.

As both the military in internal situations grew more menacing, many foreigners were moving out of their fancy hotels and apartments, as soldiers and police moved in.

Building managers were frantic. Not only were they losing revenue, but the Chinese soldiers' tenancy ran up maintenance costs.

Many of these soldiers, who never before had been in a modern building, rode up and down the elevators all day like kids on a free roller-coaster.

Some took five and six showers a day, draining the tanks of scarce hot water.

There were machine guns in the lobbies and entrances of plush apartments and hotels. Troops slept ten and 12 to a room.

Government Tells Which Landlords May Raise Rents

Washington, May 2—(AP)—The government tonight made public a yardstick to determine which landlords can raise their rents, but left unanswered the big question:

How widespread and how large will the increase be?

Housing Expediter T. E. Woods announced:

1. Any landlord operating a small structure can get a rent increase if his net operating income is less than 25 per cent of his gross income. He will be given an increase to bring his net operating income up to 25 per cent.

2. Any landlord operating a large structure can get an increase if his net operating income is less than 20 per cent of his gross income. He will get an increase to bring his net operating income up to 20 per cent.

Bolivian Election Causes Gun Fights

La Paz, Bolivia, May 2—(AP)—Bolivians, who once strung their president up to a lamp post, engaged in sporadic gun battles again today and the government declared a state of siege.

Official sources said at least five persons were killed and 30 wounded in shootings last night and again today after a parliamentary election.

Although President Enrique Hertzog's Republican Socialist Union party (PURS) kept control in the election yesterday, surprising gains were shown by the National Revolutionary Movement (MNR), the party of the late President Gualberto Villalpando. The MNR was thrown out of power in July, 1946, when Villalpando was hanged from a lamp post.

BELL RINGER FORGETS TO RELEASE ROPE

Priston, Eng., May 2—(AP)—Ever forget to let go of a bowling ball? The Rev. James E. H. Williams did something of the sort last night. Ringing the bell for evening service he forgot to release the bell rope. When the bell swung back he was lifted more than 20 feet to the ceiling of the bell-ringing chamber and then fell to the floor.

He suffered possible rib fractures.

States Rutledge's Wife Will Testify In His Defense

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, May 2—(AP)—The attractive blond wife of Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, St. Louis physician on trial for his life, will testify in his defense, Leo Laughren, St. Louis attorney said today.

The 27-year-old specialist in children's diseases is accused of fatally stabbing Byron Hattman, bachelor adviser of Mrs. Rutledge. His murder trial opened here today.

Laughren represented Dr. Rutledge during the lengthy extradition hearings to return him to Iowa and came to Cedar Rapids when Dr. Rutledge surrendered to authorities here last month.

Laughren told newsmen that the pretty six-foot Mrs. Sidney Rutledge, 23, would be a defense witness. There were indications, also, that Laughren, not an attorney of record in this trial, would appear as a defense witness.

Defense attorneys hinted today they might try to prove that Hattman accidentally killed himself in a fight with the doctor.

May Begins In U.S. With Promise Of Warmer Weather

Chicago, May 2—(AP)—It was windy in the north central states, warming up over the plains and rainy in parts of the southeast and northwest today.

Velocity of winds in the Great Lakes area ranged up to 30 or 35 miles an hour, and lower Michigan felt gusts of 35 to 60 miles an hour.

The weather bureau predicted further temperature rises over a wider area, including most of the upper Mississippi valley—Tuesday.

Rain persisted in the southern Appalachians and parts of the Gulf region after some local areas of gulf states reported two to three inches of rainfall in 24 hours. In the northwest, rain fell as far inland as Idaho and south over northern California.

Temperatures were generally mild and seasonal in the nation's perimeter areas, and most of the country had sunshine.

Council Of Europe Hopes To Expand

London, May 2—(AP)—Prospects appeared good tonight that the new Council of Europe will be expanded to include Turkey and Greece, and later western Germany.

Foreign ministers of the 10 founding nations were called to meet at St. James' palace tomorrow to begin work on setting up the council.

The founding nations are Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Italy and Ireland and the five Brussels pact powers—Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

FBI Agents Tell Story Of Trailing J. Coplon

Washington, May 2—(AP)—The story of how the FBI shadowed Judith Coplon and her alleged Russian sweetheart weeks before her arrest was told today to a jury at Miss Coplon's espionage trial.

For example, FBI agent John F. Malley said half a dozen federal operatives were on hand to witness the 27-year-old government girl's arrival at Pennsylvania station, New York, last January 14.

A string of other FBI men took the witness stand in federal court to tell of the girl's zig-zag movements from the time she left the station at 6:15 p.m. until she finally met the Russian, Valentine A. Gubichev, at 193rd street and Broadway.

Altogether 20 FBI men worked on the case.

Miss Coplon is accused of filching national defense secrets from the Justice department in violation of the espionage laws. She was arrested with Gubichev, a 32-year-old married man and former United Nations official, on March 4.

Miss Coplon listened with rapt interest as the government sleuths—using big charts, maps and photographs—described how they trailed her in the wintry darkness of the night of Jan. 14.

In marked contrast to her previous courtroom appearances, in which she smiled repeatedly and seemed to be enjoying a lark, the pint-sized former Justice department employee was serious and subdued today.

"I don't think this is a laughing matter," she said. "My mother is here and she has a bad heart. My father died last month. Do you think I'd want to cry in front of her?"

"I'm trying to keep up her spirits as well as my own. I'm too well aware of the seriousness of what's going on here to laugh about it."

If convicted, Miss Coplon would face a possible maximum sentence of 30 years in prison.

House Demos Fix Labor Bill

Will Offer Compromise Act Today

Washington, May 2—(AP)—Democratic leaders in the House hammered out a compromise labor bill late today, and planned to offer it on the floor tomorrow.

The compromise retains some features of the Taft-Hartley law in an effort to assure the measure's passage.

It would replace the administration labor bill which called for outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley act and revival of the New Deal Wagner act with some modifications.

GOP Backs Wood Bill
Disliking this bill, a number of Republicans and southern Democrats have got behind a bill offered by Rep. Wood (D-Ga.) to "repeal" the Taft-Hartley act but reenact most of its major provisions.

To take the steam out of this drive for the Wood bill, the compromise was drafted, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) told reporters after a two-hour conference of House leaders, and House labor committee members, and the compromise would include these points:

1. Injunction provisions, similar to those now in the Taft-Hartley law, to deal with labor disputes threatening the national security or safety. The administration bill omitted these provisions.

2. A guarantee of free speech to employers and unions in labor disputes.

3. A requirement that unions make regular financial reports periodically.

4. A requirement that employers and union officials sign oaths of loyalty to the government and swear they are not communists before they can avail themselves of national labor board procedures. The Taft-Hartley law contains the non-communist oath provision as to unions, and the administration bill omits it altogether.

5. Creation of a joint congressional committee to study labor-management relations.

The House will vote on the compromise first. If it passes there will be no vote on the Wood bill or on the administration measure, which is known as the Thomas-Lesinski bill.

Rayburn emphasized that the compromise had not been cleared with the Truman administration, and does not have administration approval.

When Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.), chairman of the House labor committee and an author of the administration bill was asked whether he approved the compromise, he replied:

"I will go along with the majority."

Husband Breathes
For Wife 5 Hours
To Save Her Life

Omaha, May 2—(AP)—Omaha firemen today came to the aid of a desperate husband who crouched on his hands and knees for five hours to operate the bellows of a broken iron lung worn by his polio-stricken wife.

The small chest respirator worn by Mrs. Ralph Palmer of Los Angeles when she started for Ithaca, N. Y., broke down as the Union Pacific Los Angeles Limited sped across western Nebraska. No repairs could be obtained in North Platte so Palmer continued operating the bellows all the way to Omaha.

During the five-hour run Palmer crouched on hands and knees and pumped the bellows 17 times per minute. At Omaha Mrs. Palmer was quickly transferred to a fire department respirator and the Los Angeles Limited pulled out on time.

"My that feels good," Mrs. Palmer sighed as the electric motor took over. "Wonderful!" echoed her husband.

Charge Man With Slapping Infant
Daughter To Death

New York, May 2—(AP)—An unemployed paper box factory worker today was charged with slapping to death his three-months-old daughter because she cried.

The child, Doreen Kluefer, died yesterday in St. Catharine's hospital, Brooklyn. Dr. Mendel Jacoby, assistant Kings county medical examiner, said an autopsy today showed the baby died of a fractured skull.

Assistant District Attorney Samuel Y. Gitlin said an investigation disclosed the baby was slapped three times by the father when it began crying.

When the mother returned from work Friday afternoon, Gitlin said, the father told her the baby had been sick, and they took the child to a hospital.

STATE STATISTICIANS FIND MARCH NORMAL

Springfield, Ill., May 2—(AP)—The weatherman's statisticians finished up with the month of March today. Although mercury readings over the state ranged from five below at Stockton on the first to 79 above at Quincy on the 29th, they found the average temperature was almost exactly normal at 41.1 degrees. Precipitation averaged 3.21 inches, or just a shade over normal.

Report Dispute At Ford Motor Plant Near Settlement

Detroit, May 2—(AP)—A strike-threatening speedup involving 60,000 Ford workers appeared near settlement late today.

The CIO United Auto Workers claimed that Ford has slowed down its production lines last Thursday. The report came from an International UAW committee assigned to investigate local union charges of a speedup.

"The production dispute in the building can be solved if production is continued, with a few adjustments, on the basis on which it was running today," said the committee headed by UAW secretary-treasurer Emil Mazey.

There was no immediate comment from the company.

Ford workers voted for a strike last month. Their application for strike authorization from the International Executive Board, however, was set aside pending an investigation.

Recover Revolver Babich Used To Kill Wife's Sister

Milwaukee, May 2—(AP)—A 22 caliber revolver was recovered today from the Milwaukee river, near the spot where Milton Babich said he threw pretty Pat Birmingham's trussed and weighted body.

Deputy District Attorney Joseph E. Tierney said the weapon was picked up by an electromagnet, apparently after a diver dislodged it from the Rock river bottom.

Search for the gun with which Babich insists 16-year-old Pat was slain accidentally has centered on the waterfront near the spot where the young bridegroom said he threw Pat's body Feb. 10.

Babich, who married Pat's older sister, Kathleen, two days before the West Allis high school sophomore's body was found March 20, faces a charge of first degree murder in the death. He will have a preliminary hearing Wednesday.

The youth, 19, has contended Pat was shot to death accidentally during an argument after Pat threatened to reveal Kathleen's pregnancy. He told police he had bought the revolver to frighten her.

Man's 2 Ex-Wives Complain He Won't Pay Them Alimony

Chicago, May 2—(AP)—Two ex-wives of a Milwaukee hardware salesman complained today that he had failed to pay them alimony despite earnings of $14,000 last year.

The two women are Mrs. Caroline Timmerman, 45, and Mrs. Anne Chielewski, 40, both of Chicago. They told Judge Rudolph F. Desort that their former husband Stanley Chielewski, 54, of 3624 West Townsend street, Milwaukee, had not met his alimony. They said he is $5,000 in arrears to both of them.

Mrs. Timmerman divorced Chielewski in 1927. She told the court Chielewski had never paid the $10 weekly support sum ordered at the divorce. This was for support of their son, Lawrence, now 25.

Mrs. Chielewski, who won her divorce in 1938, said Chielewski had also failed to meet $10 payments to her. This is for support of two children, Arlene, 13, and Stanley, 12.

TO BEGIN PUBLISHING TABLOID IN NEW YORK

New York, May 2—(AP)—T. O. Thackrey, former editor and publisher of the New York Post Home News, said today he plans to start publishing a new tabloid morning newspaper in New York within two or three weeks.

The newspaper, which will also have a Sunday edition, will be called the "Daily Compass" and will sell at 10 cents a copy.

Thackrey said Mrs. Emmons Blaine of Chicago, 83-year-old Harvester heiress, owns the majority of preferred stock in the newspaper.

Mrs. Emmons is the former Anita McCormick.

AIRLIFT REACHES 1,500,000 TON MARK

Berlin, May 2—(AP)—The three western commandants today authorized the coffee ration to be doubled for west Berliners.

West Berlin residents have been getting about three ounces of coffee a month. Airlift planes will have to haul in an additional 150 tons of coffee a month to meet the increased ration.

The airlift has passed the 1,500,000-ton mark in the supply of Berlin. Planes brought in 6,769 tons today.

U.S. Charges USSR Is Jamming Its Radio Broadcasts

Washington, May 2—(AP)—The United States has filed a formal protest that Soviet Russia is blacking out "Voice of America" broadcasts.

Assistant Secretary of State George V. Allen announced the protest was filed with the International Telecommunications union. Russia and the United States are both members of the agency.

Allen said the state department asked that Russia be requested to "put an end to the jamming operations" as violations of four sets of agreements.

Officials have said the jamming has been more intensive in recent days. They expressed belief Soviet leaders were trying to keep the Russian people in the dark about current negotiations for lifting the Berlin blockade.

The officials hazarded the guess that Russia was playing for time to prepare a new propaganda line on the Berlin issue.

Teen-Age Husband Kills Wife Who Left Home, Babies

New Orleans, May 2—(AP)—Police quoted a lanky, teen-aged husband as saying today he killed his estranged 17-year-old wife with a pistol "because she wouldn't come home to her babies."

The blue denim-clad youth, Joseph Lailheque, 19, was booked on a murder charge at police headquarters.

Homicide Detective John Sabatier said Lailheque told him his wife, Joy, "laughed in his face" and he shot her. Coroner C. Grenes Cole reported the youth admitted firing three shots with a .25 caliber Czech pistol.

The detective quoted the boyish-faced husband as saying his wife left their home April 24 "apparently to go to church."

The youth gave the following additional account, Sabatier said:

"He went to his wife's rooming house and finally persuaded her to come back for the sake of the children, Joseph Jr., 22 months old, and Joey Ann, six months."

"She was almost packed when she changed her mind again," Lailheque continued, and another argument followed.

"Then she said I couldn't have the kids, that she would kill me before she would let me have them," he said.

NOT ENOUGH SMOKES
Calcutta, India, May 2—(AP)—A disgruntled party of north Burmese tribesmen set out for home today after trekking to the Assam township of Ledo to trade three elephants for cigarettes.

Ledo merchants did not have enough smokes to sing such a big deal.

Con-Con Compromise Offered By Stevenson

Springfield, Ill., May 2—(AP)—Governor Stevenson tonight offered a compromise in an attempt to win legislative adoption of a state constitutional convention.

The governor announced that a companion measure—known as the party responsibility bill—will be withdrawn.

Stevenson requested a show-down vote on the Con-Con resolution in the House tomorrow. If it fails again, it will be dropped for the remaining two months of the regular session, he said.

Three weeks ago, the House refused by five votes to approve the resolution for a 1950 vote of the people on calling a convention to overhaul the 1870 state constitution.

Stevenson has said previously that without the party responsibility bill, there was little chance that a convention would be summoned by voters.

Says Russia Wants To Shelve Cold War For Economy

Berlin, May 2—(AP)—Authoritative American sources expressed belief tonight the Soviet Union wants to shelve the cold war with the aim of easing East-West economic barriers as well as ending the Berlin blockade.

They say the Russians hope to do this without sacrificing long-range communist political objectives.

These sources, who have been dealing with Russia continuously since the end of the war, said that besides ending the Berlin blockade Russia probably would make the following concessions:

1. Agree to virtually any proposal the west makes on Germany in order to gain entry to the west and get a central German government which might be able to influence.

2. Open eastern Europe to western trade, lifting at least the economic iron curtain.

"Russia has lost the battle for Berlin. She has asked for a truce. This truce is needed in order to regroup her forces and launch a new attack with new methods. Her aims have not changed but her tactics have."

Aid To Education By US Gains Favor In Senate Voting

Washington, May 2—(AP)—Senate sponsors of a $300,000,000 federal aid to education bill scored a top-heavy 68 to 11 victory today.

Led jointly by Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Elbert Thomas (D-Utah), they beat down an amendment by Senator Lodge (R-Mass) which would have raised the amount richer states would receive for each pupil.

Lodge proposed that every state receive $10 of federal aid each year for all children between 5 and 17 years.

Taft and other sponsors of the aid plan contended this "would kill the bill." They said it would defeat its purpose to equalize educational opportunities among the states.

The senate vote retained a plan for giving each state a minimum of $5 per pupil per year with the poorer states—determined by a formula—receiving as much as $29.18 per pupil. Lodge contended this formula was not an accurate method of measuring relative wealth of states.

Although the Lodge amendment would have assured 32 states a bigger share in the funds, only 11 senators supported it.

5-Year-Old Boy, Chained In Crib, Dies In Home Fire

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 2—(AP)—Mute five-year-old Bryant Gill, chained in his crib by his mother, burned to death today, fire chief Ambrose Saricks reported.

Saricks said the mother, Mrs. Nettie Gill, 26, kept the child confined in his crib because he frequently ran away from home. She had placed a heavy screen netting over the crib, and wrapped heavy iron chains joined with padlocks around it.

The boy was born dumb although his hearing was not impaired. Saricks said.

The mother was painfully burned in an attempt to rescue the boy, one of four children.

Saricks said Mrs. Gill locked the boy in the metal crib after feeding him breakfast. Apparently the fire was started by the boy playing with matches that he obtained during breakfast, the fire chief added.

UN TO ADJOURN MAY 14
New York, May 2—(AP)—The United Nations Assembly decided today to adjourn its spring session May 14. It began April 5.

Russia wanted adjournment set for May 18 but did not press for it.

Rest Decision On Approval Of Leaders

New York, May 2—(AP)—Envoys of the three big powers conferred for more than an hour today on the Berlin blockade. Afterward a United States spokesman indicated no new meeting with Russia is expected within the next 24 hours.

Today's conference was called by U. S. Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup to fix a joint approach to the Russians on lifting the blockade. Britain was represented by Sir Alexander Cadogan and France by Jean Chauvel.

After the meeting they put out a statement saying the discussions still are "proceeding satisfactorily." They declined to disclose whether any agreement on the western stand had been reached.

There were indications that one or more of the conferees wanted time to refer the problem to his home government for final approval.

Will Not Meet Malik Soon
The U. S. spokesman expressed doubts that a meeting with Russia's Jakob A. Malik would be arranged before Wednesday. He said he could not be any more specific than to say the western powers would communicate with Malik "at the appropriate time."

This was seen as an indication that the western powers would take the initiative in proposing the next meeting. It still was uncertain, however, whether Britain and France would be brought into the dealings with Russia at this stage or whether Jessup would continue to represent them.

The western talks were held at the Park avenue headquarters of the American Delegation to the U.N. Jessup called the British and French representatives in after weekend conferences in Washington with Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Jessup made a final call at the state department this morning and then came here by plane to arrange the meeting of the western powers.

Jessup dealt alone with Malik in all five meetings they have had since their talks began Feb. 15. He has kept the British and French advised all along, however.

Now, a reliable diplomatic source said, Jessup can be expected to take the initiative and ask Malik to meet with him and the British and French within a day or so.

It was Malik who invited Jessup to both their meetings last week in the 680 Park avenue quarters of the Soviet U.N. delegation.

The American-British-French meeting was the latest in the series of closely-guarded diplomatic talks spurred by the official Soviet news agency's announcement a week ago that Russia was ready to open up Berlin.

The Tass agency said Russia would end her ten-month blockade if the western allies would lift their counter-blockade of the eastern zone and agree to a Big Four meeting of foreign ministers to discuss a German settlement.

Atlanta Council Puts Ban On Mask Wearing By Klan

Atlanta, May 2—(AP)—The wearing of masks was banned in this capital of the Ku Klux Klan today.

By a unanimous, 17-0 vote the city council approved the anti-mask ordinance introduced by Councilman Archie Lindsey.

The new ordinance makes the wearing of masks in public, except for festive occasions such as Halloween, and offense punishable by a fine of $200 and 30 days in jail.

Lindsey reported that on the eve of the council meeting, a piece of plywood, shaped like a Klan Hood and bearing the initials K.K.K. and a cross, was placed on his front porch.

Shortly after the discovery of the board, said Lindsey, he received an anonymous telephone call in which he was warned, "for your sake and safety, the Klan must not be unmasked."

Lindsey exhibited the wooden plaque to the council and said, "there is no place in this country for such an organization. In the name of public decency we should approve this ordinance."

The unanimous vote followed.

Ways to Save

If you were a descendent of the mutineers of the "Bounty," who married native girls and settled on Pitcairn Island, your "wealth" would be turtle meat. You would save the surplus food from turtle hunts by filling coconut shells with the meat preserved in turtle fat. Your meat "savings" could be bartered for clothing, shelter or other food, just like we save and use money here.

At Jacksonville Savings & Loan Association your savings are safe, and they steadily grow because of the profit they earn, and you are not constantly tempted to use them in a feast. It's easy and pleasant to save money at Jacksonville Savings & Loan Association. Stop in and let us explain.

One of the prettiest of the early spring weddings was that Sunday afternoon of Miss Betty McFarland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McFarland, rural route one, Jacksonville, and Maurice Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cooper of Lenoirville.

For the wedding occasion, the altar of the church was adorned with flowers, arranged amidst a setting of ferns and lighted tapers.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Alice Geisler, organist, who also served as accompanist for Mrs. Richard Adams of Normal as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Attending the couple were Mrs. Wanda McGlasson of Columbia, Mo., as matron of honor and Albert McFarland, brother of the bride, as best man. Ushers were Earl Leffleman of Carlinville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and John Clause of Normal, the bride's cousin.

The gown worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was of white satin, a shirred-sleeve yoke of marquisette, offset by a Bertha of Chantilly lace, long sleeves, tapered over the hands, and pointed waistline. The full skirt extended into a chapel train.

MRS. EDWIN MIERS HURT
IN FALL ON STAIRWAY

Lacia Zarate, who measured 20 inches in height, was the smallest person on record.

A tiara fashioned of pearlized orange blossoms held in place the fingertip veil of marquisette, which was worn with blusher and bordered with Chantilly lace.

Carries Heirloom Handkerchief

The bridal bouquet was of calla lilies, tied with streamers of white satin, as her only jewelry, the bride wore a tripple strand of pearls and carried a handkerchief which her grandmother had carried at her wedding.

The matron of honor was attired in a gown of powder blue, designed with Bertha neckline and enfanta styling at the waist. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and wore a matching headband.

Lavender and yellow, respectively, were worn by the candlelighters, Mrs. Joyce Christison and Miss Wanda Dobbs. They carried candles, tied with bows the opposite color of their gown.

The bride's mother wore a soft grey print with black accessories, while the bridegroom's mother chose aqua with navy accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

Reception At Home

A reception for close friends and relatives followed at the country home of the bride's parents. A three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink roses, was cut by the couple.

The serving was done by Miss Grace McFarland, sister of the bride, Mrs. Earl Leffleman of Carlinville, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. David Claus, the bride's aunt.

The couple then left on a wedding trip through the South. For traveling, the bride chose a suit of navy blue, with which she wore burgundy accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Cooper was graduated from Jacksonville High school, after which she attended Illinois college and Brown's Business college. She is now employed in the office at Nesco.

Her husband also attended Jacksonville High school and served in the Philippines with the army during World War II. He is also employed at Nesco.

C. D. A. Members Attend Breakfast After Communion

Court Our Saviour, Catholic Daughters of America, observed the annual Communion Sunday of the order on May 1, by attending the 8 o'clock Mass at the Church of Our Saviour and receiving Communion in a body.

Reverend F. F. Formaz, pastor of the Church of Our Saviour, was the celebrant of the Mass, and Reverend Raymond Franzen, chaplain of Court Our Saviour, distributed Communion. Father Franzen also gave his farewell address to the members of the parish at this Mass as well as at the other two Masses celebrated at the church on Sunday. Father Franzen will become the first resident pastor of the church at Villa Grove on Thursday of this week.

Breakfast at the Dunlap Hotel followed the Mass, and Miss Resa Walsh, grand regent, presided during the brief program following the breakfast. Miss Walsh paid tribute to Father Franzen for his years of faithful service as chaplain of Court Our Saviour and to mothers in a poem by Edgar Guest called "The Mothered Five." The annual tribute to the Blessed Mother was given by Mrs. Mildred Kane who sang Schubert's "Ave Maria." Mrs. Kane responded to the demand for an encore with Burkhardt's "Mother."

ISLAND OF ESCAPE

By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

FOUR days out of San Francisco, the 65-foot Simpatico, converted tuna fisher, once mine layer, raised Speare Island.

Bea Cosgrove left the grease-smelling alcove where her three women companions still sat at table with the member of the crew who passed as first mate and spoke only with gestures and ogles. As she walked forward she felt the pulse of the overtaxed Diesels slow. The bow dropped lower, pushed apologetically now through the swells.

She saw the captain in the tiny wheelhouse, pulling away a dead leaf from the potted plant he tended so carefully. He looked up and smiled at her, a flash of white teeth in his bearded face. The half door hid the cotton pants he usually wore, and the bare upper part of his body was incredibly hairy.

In the bow, the reduced speed had stopped any breeze. Bea pushed her dark hair from her eyes. Ahead was a small brown smudge.

"Speare Island. Beautiful, is it not?"

She turned to face Captain Oak. He stood beside her on splayed bare feet. The hair on top of his shoulders stood up in unruly tufts. He looked at her a moment, then turned and pointed ahead again. "Your future home. Home, Sweet Home."

"So you do speak English? I thought you couldn't be as dumb as you pretended," Bea said.

"You are provoked with me. That is all right, I, Miguel Cervantes Vanessi Oak, say it is all right. But this thing you are going to do. That is not all right."

"I don't know what you're talking about," she said.

Captain Miguel Oak shrugged his massive shoulders. "Those other three in the mess hall. Of them I laugh. I do not care what they do. It is fine if they go to Speare Island. For you, for one so beautiful, with a figure like . . . he gestured. He repeated, "It is not good. For those others, maybe there is no other chance."

Miss Cosgrove's gray eyes could take on a greenish shade at times. She said, "I'm 40. I've taught school 20 years. I—"

He interrupted. "I do not care about your past. Even if I believed the words you say."

"And you have something to suggest?"

"You laugh at me. But never mind. I do have something to suggest. Go back with me on the Simpatico. Do not stay on the island."

SHE stared at him. His slit eyes were a liquid brown. "And if I stay with the other three?"

He shrugged. "I suppose," Bea said, "I should be complimented. You break your four-day silence, and make proposals. But the answer is no."

"Proposals?" Oak's bearded face was creased in bewilderment. He laughed suddenly. "Ah, senorita, you thought I spoke of love? Of love between us, eh? What have you and I to do with love?"

He waited for an answer, went on at last. "It is not the time, now. But there is something else of which we know. Something stronger maybe."

"Stronger? What do you mean?" "Hate, senorita. Hate."

Bea looked at the island, closer now, with individual features of cliffs and white foam line emerging. "I'm not going back," she said slowly.

"I did not think so. I can see things hidden to others. And I see things hidden to you."

must warn." He reached in a pocket of his white pants and pulled out a tiny, nickel-plated revolver. He said, "You can use this I think."

She took it, looked at it. "I wouldn't shoot that thing with a borrowed hand."

Oak said, "The things school-teachers know! But you are right. It is a 'suicide gun.' But it will serve a purpose. It might be used to draw attention away from that so efficient automatic you carry in your girdle. You see, on the island, no firearms are allowed but his."

Bea partially checked her downward glance.

"It does not show," Oak said. "Unless one has an eye for such matters."

"Thanks. I'll take it, put it in my bag. And I suppose I'd better go put the few things I have together."

"There is plenty of time. We must wait outside for the right moment. It is a bad landing."

Bea smiled. "I'll take care of myself." She reached out and patted his shoulder. The tufts of hair were springy under her palm. She jerked her hand away.

Miguel Oak said, "You were not built to hold so much hate."

IT was late afternoon and four women were on the foredeck of the Simpatico when she entered the cove, hugging closely the overhang of a yellow, scarlet and black cliff. The wake pushed out and tossed the restless water against the green sea growth on tidal rock, retreated and left the long streamers brushed and dripping.

A group of men waited silently on one side of the small dock, while noisy sea birds littered the other. When the Simpatico slid closer, Bea could see strands of barb wire which caged the men, shut them off from the wide table where one man in spotless white sat waiting.

Miss Cosgrove and her three companions held identical overnight cases they had been given to "bring everything they wanted besides clothes" to Speare Island. All four were dressed in their versions of suitable. Miss Cosgrove in a black suit skirt and coat with a loose white blouse, ankle socks and comfortable low black shoes. Mabel Jones's flowered print hung loosely and shapelessly from her sloping shoulders and left bare the lower part of her tanned, muscle-corded arms. In one, work-hardened hand she carried a gray coat with mossy moth-eaten bits of collar fur. Lilly Warren's shocking pink slacks were too tight across the seat. Her off-shade red shoes were open-toed.

Bea looked at the island, closer now, with individual features of cliffs and white foam line emerging. "I'm not going back," she said slowly.

"I did not think so. I can see things hidden to others. And I see things hidden to you."

Fighting Phillies No Longer Futile; Win 3 In Row From Dodgers

By JOE REICHER, Associated Press Sports Writer

They laughed when the Philadelphia front office announced in dead-end Philadelphia that the Phillies would be known as the "Fighting Phillies."

They laughed all the harder when the Quaker City's chronic second division outfit proceeded to beat their new nickname by dropping six of their first nine starts. But that was four days ago.

They're not laughing any more. The rival National League clubs simply fail to see anything funny about a team that just got through knocking off the Brooklyn Dodgers three times in as many days over own backyard. Let's forget, the Dodgers were generally rated as the club to beat for the flag.

Yesterday's 4-2 victory over the Dodgers boosted the Phils out of the league cellar, 12 percentage points above the Chicago Cubs. They now have a win and lost record of 6-4, a double header, the Pirates winning only half a game out of the first two games behind the home front running Boston Braves. With an 11-game home stand facing them starting tomorrow, the Phils are in a position to make the Phils' manager Eddie Sawyer look good.

Braves Whip Giants Twice

The Braves moved into undisputed first place in the National, winning both ends of a double header from the New York Giants, 6-5 and 4-2.

Carburetor Too Rich Makes Motorist Too Poor

Car owners who are wasting money and not getting proper gas mileage due to over-rich mixtures will be pleased to learn of a Wisconsin inventor who has developed a very clever unit that helps save gasoline by "Vacu-mating." It is automatic and operates on the supercharge principle. Easily installed in a few minutes. Fits all cars, trucks, tractors. The manufacturer, the Vacuum Carburetor Co., 7617-532 G State St., Wauwatosa, Wis., are offering a Vacu-matic to anyone who will install it on his car and help introduce it to others. They will gladly send full free particulars if you write them or just send your name and address on a penny post card today. (Adv.)

Blueboy Golfers Drop 7-5 Match To Carthage College

Coach Lloyd Dudley's Illinois College golfers dropped a close 7-5 match to the Carthage linksters on the Jacksonville Country Club greens recently.

Points are garnered every nine holes in each eighteen-hole match. A member of the four-man team can gain a total of 3 points if he takes both nine-hole sessions from his opponent. If a man wins one nine-hole round but loses the second nine-hole and the match, he gains but 1 point and his opponent takes the 2.

Johnny Antonelli, Boston's high-priced 19-year-old bonus southpaw, won his first big league game in the first major league start in the ninth inning. He allowed six hits, walked nine and was rescued by Nelson Potter when he walked the first three men to face him in the ninth. Potter got Sid Gordon to line into a double simply fail to see anything funny about a team that just got through knocking off the Brooklyn Dodgers three times in as many days over own backyard. The Braves moved into undisputed first place in the National, winning both ends of a double header from the New York Giants, 6-5 and 4-2.

The Boston Red Sox, after two straight beatings by the New York Yankees, finally came to life, blasting Alie Reynolds and Frank Shea for 14 hits and an 11-2 triumph. Johnny Pesky, Vern Stephens and Ted Williams walked home runs for the winners.

Bob Lemon pitched a two-hitter for Cleveland, but bowed to Detroit's Hal Newhouser, 3-2, on Dick Wakefield's three-run homer in the first inning.

The Philadelphia Athletics smashed out two more victories over the hapless Washington Senators, 15-9 and 7-3, with the second game halted after seven innings because of the Pennsylvania curfew law.

Outfielder Fimer Volo paced the first game attack with a pair of triples, each coming with the bases loaded. Hank Majeski and Mike Guerra homered in the second game to give Alex Kellner his first major league victory.

The Chicago White Sox whipped the Browns twice in St. Louis, 7-6 and 14-11, to make it seven in a row over the Browns this season. In all, the Sox have won eight games, the other coming against the Tigers.

Ivy Loop Track Meet At Roodhouse Friday

The 21st annual Illinois Valley track and field meet will be run off on the Roodhouse high school cinders Friday afternoon, May 6.

Eight teams, representing Pittsfield, Pleasant Hill, Winchester, Roodhouse, White Hall, Carrollton, Greenfield and Jerseyville prep schools will participate in the event.

The Carrollton thincalcs are back this year stronger than ever and eager to defend the Ivy track title which they won last year. The Hawk speedsters are favored to repeat their winning performance this season.

Outstanding among the individual stars who are returning to defend their single titles this season is Gale Staples, Carrollton's 12 ft. 4 in. pole vaulter. The blond lad holds the Ivy record with this distance.

Bennett Roodhouse, White Hall weight man, returns this year to compete in his specialty, the shot put and Dick Riddings, Carrollton will again be running the 200 yard low hurdles. Dick Zimmerman, Pittsfield speedster, is named the man to watch in the high hurdle event.

Discus, Hurdles Records Broken At Drake Relays

Des Moines, May 2.—(P)—Thrilling finishes were plentiful but broken records were not at the 40th annual Drake relays.

Only two new relays marks were set—in the discus and 220 yard low hurdles. The hurdles mark was more or less automatic, since the event had appeared only once before on the relays program.

Two of the fastest finishes were staged by Don Gehrmann, Wisconsin's 135 pound speed merchant, in the distance and sprint medley relays. Sport writers covering the event voted him the outstanding performer in the Drake classic this year.

Gehrmann received 22 of 24 votes cast by the sports writers. The other two votes went to Jerome Biffle of Denver, and Paige Christiansen, Michigan State hurdler.

Probably the greatest individual performance of the relays was Gehrmann's mile sprint in the distance medley. When he got the baton, he trailed Bill Mack of Michigan state by 25 yards. He blazed past Kansas and California, and barely managed to twist ahead of Mack at the tape. He was clocked in 4:13.1.

Moose Nine Wins Exhibition Tilt Sunday, 17 To 3

The Jacksonville Moose baseball squad swamped the Twin Basket super mart's club 17 to 3 in an exhibition tilt Sunday afternoon.

The game was played on the Jacksonville high school diamond.

The powerful Moose team had little trouble in routing its opponents. Four pitchers were sent to the hill to try their wings against lesser opposition before league play opens next Sunday.

A total of 19 hits rattled off the bats of the Moose hitters. Stan Spotts rapped out four safeties in six trips to the plate to lead the winner's hit parade. Catcher George Bourke and left fielder Leroy Sommer each collected a trio of hits in six times at bat.

The Moose nine, after opening the game with 5 runs in the first inning, scored in every frame except the fifth in gaining the exhibition win. Williams, Allen, Bousse and Mitchell twirled for the Moose outfit.

The squad, managed by Henry Sommer, pries the lid off the season next Sunday here at 2:30 p.m. when it entertains the Havana Glass Bar nine. They are entered in an eight-team circuit comprised of the Havana Red Sox, Havana Glass Bar, Beardstown Merchants, Smithfield Merchants, Astoria Merchants, Table Grove Merchants, and Kilbourne Indians.

The Kilbourne squad looms as the most formidable nine. They journeyed to Milwaukee last year to play in the national amateur baseball tournament.

Crimson Baseballers Edge Meredosia 8-7; Play Rout Thursday

Bob Kraushaar's Crimson batsmen scored the winning run in the seventh inning and dumped the Meredosias 8-7 on the northside field yesterday afternoon.

Butch Bunch, regular first baseman, started the game on the mound for the J.H.S. gang. The southpaw stayed in the ball game for five innings before Kraushaar lifted him with the count standing 7-5 for Jacksonville.

The locals did the bulk of their scoring in the early innings of play. A homer by Johnny Walker, after Trotter and Williams had walked, gave the J.H.S. nine three big tallies in the first inning.

Score Again In Second

The Kraushaars followed their first-inning splurge with two more runs in the second inning. Chapman walked to open the frame and hits by Sommer and Trotter accounted for these second-canto scores.

The Crimsons tallied again in the third inning when hits by Bunch, Walker and Fanning brought in a single run.

Meredosia opened its scoring drive in the third inning when pitcher Bunch lost control momentarily and hit a batter. He allowed two hits after this which brought in a brace of enemy runs.

The home crew went for a goose-egg in the fourth canto. The visitors sneaked back into the ball game when they added another count to their total and brought the score up to 6-3, Jacksonville.

The Crimsons made it a "natural" in the fifth inning by counting another run on a double by Bunch who was brought home on a hit by Fanning.

Meredosia Scores

Meredosia club scored again in their end of the fifth on two walks and a hit. They brought their tally to 5 runs with the air of a couple of Crimsons misuses.

Both nines went 0 for 0 in the sixth canto.

The invading crew opened its half of the last inning when it combined an error and a round-trip blow by Trotter, the pitcher, to culminate its scoring efforts at 7 runs.

The local nine clinched the ball game in its half of the seventh stanza when hits by Walker and Fanning broke the 7-7 knot and gave the J.H.S. squad an 8-7 win.

Play Rout Thursday

Double Funeral Rites Wednesday For Crash Victims; Inquest Held

An open verdict was returned by a coroner's jury following an inquest into the death of Martha Jane Floreth, conducted by Deputy Coroner Roy Covington at the Williamson Funeral Home last night at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Floreth was instantly killed and her daughter, Beverly, fatally injured when the automobile driven by her husband Earl Floreth, and a car driven by Carroll J. Henderson of Murryville collided on U. S. Route 67, one mile south of Jacksonville about 7:20 o'clock last Saturday night.

The jurors found that Mrs. Floreth died from a head injury received in an accident on U. S. Route 67 one mile south of Jacksonville, Saturday night about 7:20 o'clock.

MRS. EARL H. FLORETH

Several witnesses gave testimony at the inquest with Deputy Coroner Covington and State's Attorney Albert W. Hall questioning the witnesses.

The first witness to testify was James Grant, a student at Illinois College, who was returning from a college picnic at Lake Jacksonville. He was in an automobile with several other college students and was traveling about 35 miles an hour, he said.

Grant testified that as the car in which he was riding was proceeding north, it was passed by a Chrysler automobile traveling at a tremendous rate of speed. He said the car swerved and went off the pavement but got back on again. He estimated the speed of the car at 90 miles per hour. He said that shortly after the car passed he saw a cloud of dust ahead and later learned there had been an accident. He said he stopped and rendered assistance to the injured.

Arthur Roach, 722 East Douglas Ave., Morgan county deputy sheriff, testified that he was called to the scene with Charles Warwar, another deputy. He said they assisted in placing the injured in an ambulance which had been summoned by the two-way radio in the county cruiser. Jack Hoecker, 254 Woodland Place, state highway patrolman, also called to the scene of the accident, also gave testimony at the inquest.

Lloyd R. Gordon, 604 South Main street, who arrived at the scene shortly after the accident happened, said that Jerry Cohen and himself placed the Floreth baby in Cohen's station wagon and took her to the hospital. He also said that Cohen pleaded fluster at the scene to warn motorists of the danger.

Tri L. Henderson, father of Carroll J. Henderson, whose car figured in the collision, testified that his son was enroute to Jacksonville at the time of the accident. He said he did not consider his son to be a fast driver. Mr. Henderson said the car was his property.

L. E. Bayless, 1036 West Lafayette Ave., father of Mrs. Floreth, appeared before the jury and said that he considered his son-in-law, Earl Floreth, a good, conservative driver. Charles Warwar, deputy sheriff, gave testimony similar to that given by his fellow officer, Mr. Roach. Jean Avichouser, 252 Park street,

Actual market price averaged only $15. That's almost three times as high as 1939 prices. In this case, ex-plains Simerl, every hog producer would be paid an extra $4 for every 100 pounds of hogs he sold. On a typical year's marketing, this cost would amount to 700 million dollars.

But hogs make up only one-seventh to one-eighth of total farm production. If losses and payments on other products averaged about the same in proportion as for hogs, Simerl figures the program would cost more than five billion dollars.

Other estimates have placed the cost of Brannan's farm program in some years as high as eight billion dollars.

Economist Says Farm Plan Could Be Very Expensive

Urbana — An Illinois College of Agriculture economist Monday declared that the strongest criticism of the government's new farm program is the cost to taxpayers, including farmers.

Larry Simerl, farm policy specialist, says Agriculture Secretary Brannan's farm program could easily cost as much as the total federal budget before the war. Simerl makes this comparison also:

"If the program cost five billion dollars for one year, that would be about 10 times as much as the average cost of farm programs each year from 1934 to 1939. If we had serious unemployment and consumers bought less, the cost would be greater."

Here's how Simerl figures the probable five-billion-dollar cost of Brannan's program: The estimated price support level for hogs for 1950 is $19 a 100 pounds. Suppose the

Some Farms Planting Corn—Others Await Another Rain

The majority of Morgan county farmers "were championing the bit" Monday, undecided whether to plant their corn or wait a few more days. In scattered fields, however, there were a few planters busy.

All farm work is well advanced due to the favorable season. Nearly all plowing is done and Monday's temperatures, with the thermometer hitting 82, made many producers feel that perhaps they should be planting corn.

Two reasons for delay were given. Some operators feel that the threat of corn borer would be diminished somewhat if planting is held off until the latter part of May. Other farmers said they hope for a "good rain" before hooking the tractor onto the planter.

Clyde V. Sturdy of the Strawn

Crossing Grain company said Monday that only two farmers in his area were planting corn. Oats and wheat are looking first rate throughout the northeastern section of the county, he reported.

Dennis Whalen of the Rees Farm-elevator said many fields in his vicinity "needed a good rain." He feels that the wheat prospects looking even better than they did on the first of May last year.

Wheat was very good there last year, with yields running as high as 60 bushels per acre.

College of Agriculture specialists who have been studying the spread of European corn borers advised delayed planting. Many farmers feel, however, that seeding in early is more profitable. A good number of them plan to plant late this week or early next week. They also plan to spray their fields with DDT if any serious infestation of corn borer develops.
